OFFICE OF THE PRINCIPAL INFORMATION OFFICER TO THE GOVERNMENT OF MYSORE, OLD PUBLIC OFFICES, BANGALORE.

Press Note.

From the dates of the Accession of the Mysore State to the Dominion of India and of the Inauguration of the Constitution of India, a number of Central Enactments has been extended to the Mysore State and are already in force in the State. A list of the enactments so extended is given in Schedule I for the information of the public.

In order to secure uniformity in the field of Central Legislation in all the States in India, Parliament has recently passed three Bills, viz.: The Code of Criminal Procedure (Amendment) Bill, the Code of Civil Procedure (Amendment) Bill and the Part B States (Laws) Bill. These bills have received the assent of the President and have been published in the Gazette of India, dated the 19th February and 23rd February 1951 as Central Acts I, II, and III of 1951.

They have also been published in the Mysore Gazette, dated the 1st March 1951 for general information.

By Central Act I of 1951 viz., the Code of Criminal Procedure (Amendment) Act and II of 1951 viz. the Code of Civil Procedure (Amendment) Act, the Central Code of Criminal Procedure and the Code of Civil Procedure are made applicable to all Part B States including the Mysore State.

By Central Act III of 1951 viz., the Part B States (Laws) Act, about 141 Central Enactments are made applicable to Mysore and the other Part B States.

The list of the Acts so extended is given in Schedule II.

As it is considered desirable to give due notice to the public of the wholesale changes in the laws in the State, the Government of India propose to bring into force the three enactments referred to above on Sunday the 1st April 1951. From that date, the Central Criminal Procedure Code, the Central Civil Procedure Code and all the enactments mentioned in Schedule II will come into force in Mysore.

Press Note.

The public are hereby informed that an epidemic of Rinderpest which is the most fatal disease of cattle having appeared in Byatarayanapura of Bangalore South Taluk has now spread to Kanakanapalya extension situated in the heart of Bangalore City and there is every indication of this dreadful ravage spreading to other parts of the City as well as to its surrounding villages.

The cattle owners are therefore requested to get their cattle inoculated immediately, in order to save their precious animals from falling easy victims to this most dreadful disease. Inoculations are being undertaken by the staff of the Animal Husbandry Department in the respective localities free of cost.

The public are also requested to co-operate with the staff of the Department in controlling this disease by (1) giving prompt information to the Departmental staff as and when the disease makes its appearance, and (2) in advising all cattle owners to get their animals inoculated against the disease with the least possible delay.
